18TH JUNE - 24TH AUGUST 2012

BEYOND BORDERS

A summer of live events in London, Edinburgh and the Scottish Borders
INTRODUCTION

Beyond Borders is a Scottish-based initiative dedicated to facilitating small nation dialogue and international cultural exchange. It uses Scotland’s unique cultural and political heritage to provide a platform to writers, artists, thinkers, film-makers and other civil and cultural leaders from around the world to share their ideas and experiences. Together with the help of a remarkable set of Scottish broadcasters, these cultural leaders explore some of the most important issues of our time.

Beyond Borders believes that cultural dialogue is just as important as other peace tracks in seeking to end conflict and build trust between different cultures and small nations engaged in conflict around the world.

This summer we will be bringing to Scotland a high quality programme of debate, literature, art, music, theatre and film from Turkey, South Africa, Russia, India, East Timor, North Africa and the Middle East region as well as from the United Kingdom. We are proud to bring this diverse group of cultural and political figures to the Scottish Borders and Edinburgh to explore key issues facing small nations and the world today. We invite you to read our Summer Programme and hope you will join us.

Omani Legends

Saturday 18th and Sunday 19th August / Traquair House as part of Books, Borders & Bikes festival / Access with BBB ticket

Beyond Borders is bringing a project by Delfina Foundation artist Dillwyn Smith, who collaborated with 42 artists in Oman to make a new work that incorporates 100 flags to be flown together in a visual dialogue at Traquair house throughout the Books Borders & Bikes Festival.

This project seeks to call on our senses to create an exciting, relevant, body of work that has been developed through a series of workshops where participants were encouraged to develop a personal narrative through looking at their family history.

Guy Martin

Saturday 18th and Sunday 19th August / Traquair House as part of Books, Borders & Bikes festival / Access with BBB ticket

A selection of photographs from UK Photographer Guy Martin documenting the Arab Spring in Egypt and Libya.

Guy Martin, is an award-winning documentary and editorial photographer who has worked in Ramallah, Georgia, Sudan and Iraq and was on the frontline during last year’s Arab Spring, covering historic uprisings in Egypt and Libya.

LITERATURE

Books, Borders & Bikes
An international festival of literature and thought, held at Traquair House in the beautiful Scottish Borders.

Saturday 18th – Sunday 19th August

Books, Borders and Bikes is an interactive festival of literature and thought that brings international writers and cultural leaders from around the world together with local writers, artists, historians, ramblers and cyclists to create a multidimensional literary experience. Join a remarkable set of leading Scottish broadcasters and commentators as they explore some of the most urgent cultural themes of our time through literature dialogue, art, music and theatre. Listen and participate in stimulating debates, in-depth interviews and roundtable discussions and explore the stunning grounds of Traquair House on walking and biking literary trails where you can read, listen to and meet writers and artists in action on location.

“It puts Traquair on the international map and gives a new and dynamic beating heart to international arts festivals in Scotland.”

Richard Demarco, Head of the Demarco European Art Foundation

In February 2005, a BBC journalist was murdered in Mogadishu, the capital of Somalia. Her name was Kate and she was Rebecca’s big sister.

Rebecca welcomes us to her world in a passionately political, sharply comical and painfully personal account of life after Kate. Crafting a moving and often comic tapestry of private moments from a public tragedy, Rebecca tells her own story of a courageous journalist and a loving big sister, whom she misses.

Written by Rebecca Peyton and Martin M. Bartelt / Directed by Martin M. Bartelt / Performed by Rebecca Peyton / Presented by Vital Digression and Obviam Est

Each show is dedicated to different people who have been killed working as journalists or media workers.

Vidya is the Director of Programs at The Centre For Media and Alternative Communication.

Vidya Shah is the Director of Programs at The Centre For Media and Alternative Communication.
The first decade of the 21st Century saw an unprecedented rise in non-state diplomacy within the cultural sector both at home and abroad. Beyond Borders brings together a charismatic panel of cultural leaders to explore why. The panel includes Lord Falconer, Former Lord Chancellor and Chair of the John Smith Memorial Trust; Martin Davidson, Chief Executive of the British Council; Deputy Editor of Granta Magazine, Ellah Allfrey, Bayan Sami Abdul Rahman, High Representative to UK of the KRG; Aaron Cesar of the Delfina Foundation, while writer, art critic and philosopher Dr. Oscar Guardiola-Rivera, asks the questions.

The influence of small nations in a world of global powers continues to rise. How do they maintain their cultural and political independence in the face of such forces in the 21st Century? A panel including Mark Muller Stuart QC, former First Minister of Scotland the Rt. Hon Dr Jack McConnell and Tim Phillips, Co-Founder of the Project on Justice in Times of Transition and member of the Advisory Committee for the Club de Madrid, discuss the international influence of smaller nations on issues such as security, the world economy and democracy. Chaired by Presiding Officer Trisha Marwick.

Cyrus Griffin Dialogue Initiative

The Cyrus Griffin Dialogue Initiative utilizes Beyond Borders’ cultural projects and relationships to assist peace building, and democratic reform around the world.

The Cyrus Griffin Dialogue Initiative draws upon Scotland’s unique political settlement and cultural heritage. Beyond Borders uses its conference facilities at Traquair House to facilitate exchange between key diplomatic and civil society actors from countries emerging from conflict. Over the course of each year BB hosts a number of international visits as well as both open and confidential conferences and workshops for a range of international organisations.

The Dialogue Initiative draws upon the expertise and experience of a unique collection of Scottish elder statesmen and women, diplomats, mediators, journalists and academics. If your organization is interested in accessing these facilities please contact us at info@bbscot.com or through the website at beyondbordersscotland.com.

Small Nations in Cinema

21st - 23rd August 2012, FilmHouse, Edinburgh / £7.50 / £5.50 concessions

This year’s programme focuses on three small nations emerging from conflict: Bosnia, Kurdistan Iraq and Liberia as well as examining the role of the reporter and observer in small nation conflicts.

Pamela Hogan introduces her film I CAME TO TESTIFY
Tuesday 21st August / 19:00
2010 / 52 mins / Bosnia / followed by Q&A session with Pamela Hogan and Charlotte Eager

When the Balkans exploded into war in the 1990s, reports that tens of thousands of women were being systematically raped as a tactic of ethnic cleansing captured the international spotlight. I Came to Testify is the moving story of how a group of 16 women who had been imprisoned by Serb-led forces in the Bosnian town of Foca broke history’s great silence – and stepped forward to take the witness stand in an international court of law.

A production of THIRTEEN and Fork Films in association with WNET and ITVS

PRAY THE DEVIL BACK TO HELL
Tuesday 21st August / 20:45
by Gini Reticker and Abigail Disney / 2008 / 72 mins / Liberia Introduced by co-producer Johanna Hamilton

Pray the Devil Back to Hell is the astonishing story of the Liberian women who took on the warlords and regime of dictator Charles Taylor in the midst of a brutal civil war, and won a once unimaginable peace for their shattered country in 2003.

A Fork Films production in association with THIRTEEN for WNET
KULAO: MY HEART IS DARKENED
Wednesday 22nd August / 18:30
Directed by Helena Appio / 2012 / 55 mins
Kurdistan Iraq / Introduced by Gwynne Roberts and followed by a Q&A session

Kulajo was one of the thousands of Kurdish villages targeted by Saddam Hussein during his murderous Anfal campaign in 1988. This documentary allows the people of one small community, mostly women and children, to tell their extraordinary stories. They gave birth in prison, survived a firing squad and starved in death camps before coming home. This is the first showing of their testimony, uncovered during filming for the Kurdistan Memory Programme.

Kulajo: My Heart is Darkened, is Executive Produced by the Emmy award winning team (‘Saddam’s Road to Hell) of Gwynne Roberts and Sadie Wykeham and directed by ex BBC award winning Director Helena Appio. The Producer is Joel Wykeham.

This event is sponsored by the Kurdish Regional Government.

MCCULLIN
Thursday 23rd August / 18:30
Private preview screening
by Jacqui Morris / 2011 / 89 mins / UK

A documentary on the influential photojournalist Don McCullin, his life and work. Acclaimed as one of history’s most important war photographers, for the first time he speaks candidly about his experiences. He worked with top reporters and designers, and the prominence given to his photo essays coincided with one of the most remarkable periods in the history of photojournalism; creating iconic images that have stood the test of time. Including Sir Harold Evans, editor of the Sunday Times from 1967 – 81, the film also explores how the ethos of journalism changed.

If you would like to attend this screening, please contact anna@bbscot.com / 0207 193 0832

RESTREPO
Thursday 23rd August / 21:00
by Sebastian Junger and Tim Hetherington / 2011 / 90 mins / (UK and US)

RESTREPO is a feature-length documentary that chronicles the deployment of a platoon of U.S. soldiers in Afghanistan’s Korengal Valley. The movie focuses on a remote 15-man outpost, “Restrepo,” named after a platoon medic who was killed in action. It was considered one of the most dangerous postings in the U.S. military.
